To the newest members of the 500th MI Brigade-Theater:

Aloha and welcome to the Pacific Vanguard team! You are being assigned to one of the finest units in the Army. The Brigade is on mission every day supporting United States Army Pacific (USARPAC) throughout the Pacific theater by conducting multi-discipline intelligence operations to enable commander decision making through providing timely, predictive intelligence. We serve on behalf of the U.S. Army Intelligence and Security Command (USAINSCOM) as the Anchor Point for Army Intelligence in the Pacific. We are forward-stationed throughout the theater and are always ready to deploy tailored intelligence forces in support of Unified Land Operations in the Pacific and globally.

We train our Soldiers to be ready and resilient to meet their mission every day. We engage with our joint, interagency, and partner nations to enhance intelligence capability and to support multi-domain operations. We are composed of both active and reserve forces. Our Civilians serve as an essential part of our organization at every level throughout the brigade. We are a strong, resilient, ready team of professionals on mission for the Army and the nation every day. We take great pride in the Brigade's rich heritage and well-earned reputation for excellence.

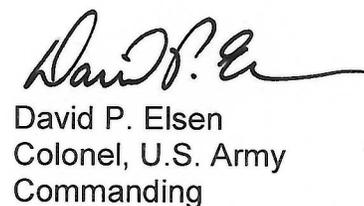

We look forward to you joining the Pacific Vanguard team. We believe you will find this assignment both professionally and personally rewarding.
